Is Giving Online Right for You?

Explore This Convenient and Secure Option for your Offertory Contributions

- Online Giving is Convenient — You pay your bills online because it is convenient and secure. Now you can submit your contributions just as easily and quickly.
- Online Giving is Consistent — You can set up recurring contributions that are processed automatically. Of course, you can change or stop automated giving at any time. You can even request reminders in advance of the dates you set, so that you can make changes as necessary.
- Online Giving is Intentional (even Biblical) — While there is always a place for giving in response to a need; we are called to make our giving a planned commitment as part of our Christian life and not leave it to chance.
- Online Giving Builds Perspective — Giving at the same time you pay your bills sets your gift in relation to your total financial activity. When compared with spending on other areas of living, you can easily evaluate your stewardship of all your resources.
- Online Giving Provides Quick Information — At any time, you can view what you have given within a date range, including both online giving and all contributions made by other methods. You can even print a statement!
- Online Giving is Protected — All transactions are encrypted and transmitted at the highest level of security possible. Access to donor information is restricted, with a unique login and password for each donor.
- Make a Prayerful Commitment — a commitment made through prayer will be blessed by the Lord and He will provide for your family needs, as well as, for the needs of our St Luke parish.
